She is a graduate of Duke University School of Law. She serves on the Auxiliary Board of the Fresh Start Women's Foundation and is a volunteer for Save the Family, handling cases involving family law.

J. Christopher Gooch is an experienced trial attorney with emphasis on commercial litigation and resolution of business-related disputes. He has significant experience representing clients with matters including breach of contract, business torts, professional malpractice, and construction law. Gooch received his juris doctorate from the University of Arizona College of Law. Gooch is a member of the Phoenix Men's Arts Council and served as chairman of the 44th Annual Cowboy Artists of America Sale and Exhibition in 2009.

Nicolas Hoskins practices in the areas of bankruptcy and creditors rights, as well as commercial and real estate litigation. His practice involves representing secured and unsecured creditors, as well as real estate oriented debtors, commercial collection and enforcement actions, pre- and post-judgment remedies, receivership litigation and trustee sales, contract, partnership, landlord-tenant and real estate litigation. Hoskins graduated from the New York University School of Law.

Todd Kartchner practices in the areas of commercial litigation, real estate litigation, construction law, and business torts. Kartchner has also presented continuing legal education courses and authored education materials regarding e-discovery. He is a graduate of the University of Arizona College of Law. He is a member of the WESTMARC Economic Development Committee.

Matt Martinez practices in the area of immigration and nationality law, providing immigration-related counsel for multinational corporations, academic institutions, information technology providers and users, foreign investors, performers, professional athletes, manufacturers and individuals from numerous countries. Martinez received his law degree from Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School. He is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association and the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service California Service Center Liaison Committee.

Christopher Raddatz focuses primarily on commercial real estate transactions, federal taxation, and business and finance. His practice includes corporate and limited liability company formation and taxation, preparation of covenants, conditions and restrictions affecting real property, and real estate purchase and sale agreements. He received his law degree from St. Thomas University School of Law. He is a member of the Urban Land Institute and a member of the UMOM New Day Centers Board of Directors.

Scott Shelley practices in the area of commercial litigation. Before joining Fennemore Craig, he worked as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Paul J. Kelly, Jr., United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit. He holds a law degree from the University of Arizona College of Law.
