Tim Berg Appointed Chair of Arizona Uniform State Laws Commission

PHOENIX, Nov. 27, 2007 — Tim Berg, managing partner of Fennemore Craig in Phoenix, has been appointed chairman of the Arizona Uniform State Laws Commission by Arizona Governor Janet Napolitano.

The Arizona Uniform State Laws Commission, whose members are appointed by the governor for six-year terms, reviews national efforts to make state laws uniform and makes recommendations regarding enacting uniform laws or amending such laws to the state legislature and the governor.

State commission members also serve on the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, an organization that studies and reviews state laws to determine which areas of law should be uniform. Berg is a member of the national conference. He formerly served on the executive committee of the organization.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 190 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson and Nogales, Ariz., Las Vegas, Nev. and Denver, Colo. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
