Fennemore Craig establishes Equine Law practice

Phoenix, Ariz., February 2, 2009 — Fennemore Craig has established an Equine Law practice, combining attorneys with experience in unique aspects of the equine industry with the legal services needed by today's equine businesses.

“Many of our attorneys own horses and participate in equine sports and events, and have a strong interest, as well as experience, in the equine industry,” said Sharon Oscar, chair of the Equine Law practice. “We look forward to assisting clients in the equine industry with their legal needs.”

The Equine Law Practice will focus on several areas including:

- Acquisition, sale and leasing of horse properties
- Entity formation, partnerships and dispositions
- Immigration, including visas for riders, trainers, grooms and managers
- Insurance and bad faith disputes
- Labor and employment counsel
- Litigation and alternative dispute resolution
- Management and training agreements
- Releases and indemnity agreements
- Syndication, sale and leasing of horses
- Tax counsel

- Trademarks, trade names, patents and licensing.

The equine practice consists of attorneys from Fennemore Craig offices in Arizona, Colorado and Nevada who are licensed to practice in those states, as well as in other states, and who can work with attorneys in other jurisdictions as necessary to assist clients with equine law needs. For more information about the Equine Law Practice go to www.fclaw.com/equine-law/ or contact Sharon Oscar, equine practice chair, at 602.916.5473.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 200 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
