Heidi Kimzey Joins Fennemore Craig's Real Estate Practice

Phoenix, Ariz., May 8, 2007 —Heidi Kimzey has been elected a director of Fennemore Craig in the Real Estate Practice where she will focus on zoning, land use and real estate development transactions. Formerly a partner with Quarles & Brady's Phoenix office, Kimzey will be based in the Phoenix office of Fennemore Craig, which has one of the largest real estate practices in the region.

She is a former member of the Encanto Village Planning Committee for the city of Phoenix and currently serves as vice chair of the Valley Forward Association. She also is a former board member of the Junior League of Phoenix and is past chair of the Arizona Women's Appointment Collaboration. She is a member of the Arizona State Bar Real Property Section, the Arizona Planning Association, and the Arizona Women Lawyers Association.

Kimzey earned her law degree, as well as a masters degree in urban planning, from Florida State University. She received her bachelors degree from the University of Central Florida.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 170 attorneys. The firm, which was founded more than a century ago, has offices in Phoenix, Tucson and Nogales, Ariz., Las Vegas, Nev., and Denver, Colo. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
