ACTORS THEATRE WELCOMES THREE NEW MEMBERS TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX, Arizona— Actors Theatre is pleased to announce the election of three new members to its Board of Directors: Joe Chandler, Scott A. Jacobson, and Jacqui Montaña. In continuing the tradition of presenting innovative, progressive ideas to the community, Board President George M. Cohen comments on the growth of Actors Theatre: “We seek to build and develop a Board of Directors that mirrors our commitment to diversity, growth and passion for the performing arts. To this end, we want to welcome our newest Board members.”

Joe Chandler is a partner with Fennemore Craig, PC where he practices in the areas of real estate transactions and negotiates purchases and sales of commercial, industrial and high-end residential properties. He is a member of the Men’s Council for the Phoenix Art Museum and served as the 2005 Chairman of VinArte: The Art of Fine Wine for the Phoenix Art Museum. Chandler received his B.A. and M.P.A. from the University of Arizona, and his J.D. from the University of San Diego School of Law.

Scott A. Jacobson is the President of Strategic Change Management, an organization known for unique approaches to leadership development, strategic planning and creating organizational cultures. Being a strong advocate of art and cultural programs, he served as Executive Director of Valley Leadership in 2002 for 5 years as well as many other boards such as the Phoenix Art Museum and presently, KAET Channel 8 (PBS). Jacobson graduated from the University of Texas.

Jacqui Montaña is a Sales Manager with Goodmans Interior Structures and the Owner and Artistic Director of Kidstage in Casa Grande. She has been involved with the arts for many years including the Downtown Phoenix Partnership as the Arts & Cultural Chair and the Arizona Commission on the Arts as a Grants and Artist Residency Review Panelist. She currently serves as a member of American Alliance for Theatre and Education and is an actor with Historic Paramount Theatre. Montaña received her B.S.B. degree from the University of Phoenix.

Actors Theatre, a 22-year old not-for-profit professional theatre company, presents progressive and provocative plays celebrating the unique power of live performances to engage and inspire our audiences. Actors Theatre is a resident company of the Herberger Theater Center in downtown Phoenix. Actors Theatre. Off Broadway – Just Downtown.
