

Contact:

Kathy M. Hancock
Fennemore Craig, P.C.
602-916-5410
khancock@fclaw.com

Kimberly Cecere
Palladeo
480-495-6662
kcecere@palladeo.com

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Fennemore Craig Attorney Elected Chair of American Bar Association Section of Environment, Energy and Resources

PHOENIX, August 21, 2006 — The Section of Environment, Energy and Resources (SEER) of the American Bar Association has elected Fennemore Craig attorney Lauren (Larry) J. Caster as chair of the 10,000-member section for 2006/2007. He previously served in numerous other leadership positions in the Section.

SEER is the premier forum for strategies and information for environmental, energy and resources lawyers. It tracks trends in those areas, including court and administrative decisions, legislative initiatives and enforcement actions.

Caster is a shareholder in the Phoenix office of Fennemore Craig, P.C. He counsels clients on water and related natural resource issues. He represents clients in general stream adjudications and interstate stream conflicts. He earned his law degree with distinction, Order of the Coif, from the University of Nebraska College of Law and his undergraduate degree from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He is admitted to practice in Arizona, Montana, Nebraska and Oregon. He is listed in The Best Lawyers in America, The Chambers USA Client Guide and the International Who's Who of Business Lawyers.

Fennemore Craig is a full service law firm with more than 160 attorneys. Founded more than a century ago, it is one of the Southwest's oldest and foremost natural resources and environmental practice groups. Fennemore Craig has offices in Phoenix, Tucson and Nogales, Arizona, and is opening a new office in Las Vegas, Nevada, on September 1, 2006. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.