Fennemore Craig Attorney Leonardo Loo Elected To Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation Board

Phoenix, Ariz., Sept. 5, 2007 — Leonardo Loo, an attorney with Fennemore Craig in Phoenix, has been elected to a three-year term on the board of the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation.

“We are delighted to welcome Leonardo Loo to the Board of Directors of the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation. He brings both expertise and enthusiasm to our board,” said Steven Schenk, executive director of development for the Maricopa Community Colleges and chief executive officer of the Maricopa Community Colleges Foundation.

“Perhaps most importantly, Leonardo has a passion for education and believes wholeheartedly in our mission to make affordable education of the highest possible quality available to the people of Maricopa County,” Schenk added.

Loo practices law in the area of business and finance. Loo represents clients in mergers and acquisitions, private offerings, financings and general securities law matters.

He is a graduate of the University of Chicago Law School, and earned a bachelor’s degree in economics from Stanford University.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 180 attorneys. Founded over a century ago, Fennemore Craig has five offices, which are located in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas, and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
