Attorney Leonardo Loo elected to board of The Victoria Foundation

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 26, 2008 — Leonardo Loo, an attorney with Fennemore Craig in Phoenix, has been elected to the board of directors of The Victoria Foundation, a local community development organization focusing on the Latino community.

Loo practices in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, venture capital investments, securities, financing, and general corporate law involving clients in a wide variety of industries.

Fennemore Craig, a full service business law firm established in 1885, has more than 190 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.

The Victoria Foundation is the first Community Development Foundation to focus on the Latino community, working to provide micro-grants to local organizations, improve Latinos' status throughout Arizona and develop a non-profit incubator and donor-advised funds targeting the Latino community. More information is available at www.thevictoriafoundation.org.
