

phoenix museum of history

MEDIA ALERT

For Immediate Release

Phoenix History Ball Honors History Makers and Raises Support for the Oldest Museum in Phoenix.

WHAT: The Phoenix Museum of History will honor longtime Arizona law firm Fennemore Craig, pioneer Martin Gold and his family, and civil rights activists Lincoln and Eleanor Ragsdale for their contributions to Phoenix history at the Phoenix History Ball.

The Ball will raise important funds to support the Phoenix Museum of History. The Valley's first and oldest museum, which welcomes thousands of visitors each year, is dedicated to preserving the history of Phoenix and the Salt River Valley and sharing that history with the public through exhibitions, tours, and other educational programming.

Mistress of Ceremonies, Terri Ouellette, from the hit show On The Go With Terri O will lead attendees in a fun filled evening of cocktails, silent auction, dinner, and dancing.

Photos available.

WHO: The Phoenix History Ball is presented by Well Fargo. This event is also made possible through support from the Ritz-Carlton Phoenix, Arizona Business Forms, and Great Scott Productions.

Honorary Chairman Terry Goddard along with The Board of Trustees of the Phoenix Museum of History invites the community to celebrate the history of the city at this exciting event.

WHEN: Saturday, April 22, 2006
6:00 p.m. Cocktails and Silent Auction,
7:30 p.m. Dinner, Awards Ceremony, and Dancing.

WHERE: The Ritz Carlton, 2401 East Camelback Road, Phoenix

TICKET PRICE: Individual seats $175 FORMAL ATTIRE
Table of 10 guests $1,750
Entertainment Sponsorship $5,000
A portion of each ticket is tax deductible. Guests can reserve seats now over the phone by credit card and must RSVP by April 14, 2006 by calling (602) 253-2734 extension 225.

MEDIA CONTACT: Tracy Wright Wagner (602) 253-2734 ext. 225
tracy@pmoh.org

Heritage and Science Park
In Downtown Copper Square
105 North 5th Street
Phoenix, Arizona 85004
602.253.2734

www.pmoh.org