

Contact:

Nicole Greason
Fennemore Craig
(602) 916-5290
ngreason@fclaw.com

Kimberly Cecere
Palladeo
(480) 495-6662
kcecere@palladeo.com

Press Release

For Immediate Release

Fennemore Craig Expands Real Estate and Business Practices in Las Vegas

Las Vegas, Nev., March 1, 2007 — Fennemore Craig’s real estate and business practices are expanding with the addition of two directors and four associates to the firm’s office in Las Vegas. David LeGrand and Don Martin have joined Fennemore Craig as directors to concentrate on Corporate and Real Estate Transactions, supported by associates Mark Hawkins, Jeffrey Steffen, Paul Wassgren and Daniel Wilmot.

“David and Don, together with the associates coming with them, add breadth and depth to Fennemore Craig’s real estate and business practice capabilities in Las Vegas,” said John Mowbray, Las Vegas managing partner for Fennemore Craig. “Fennemore Craig has more than 40 attorneys in these practice areas across the firm, providing significant depth for our clients here and across the West.”

David LeGrand, was elected a Fennemore Craig director and practices primarily in the areas of corporate, real estate and securities law, with an emphasis on entity selection, formation, capitalization and finance. LeGrand is licensed in Nevada and Ohio, as well as with the United States Tax Court. He earned his law degree from Ohio State University and his undergraduate degree from Duke University. Prior to joining Fennemore Craig, he was of counsel to the law firm Marquis & Aurbach. Earlier in his career, he served as an enforcement attorney in the Ohio Division of Securities where he became counsel to the commissioner. He subsequently co-founded his own firm in Columbus, Ohio and moved to Nevada in 2001.

Since coming to Nevada, LeGrand co-founded and served as a director of the Vegas Valley Angels, a non-profit angel investment organization. He currently serves as a trustee for the Nevada Technology Alliance and Technology Business Alliance of Nevada. In 2004, the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce awarded him the Community Achievement Award in the professional category. In 2005, he graduated from the Chamber’s leadership program.

Don Martin was elected a director of Fennemore Craig. He practices in the areas of real estate and commercial transactions, lending, corporate and business law, and taxation. Martin is a graduate of the University of San Diego School of Law. He also obtained a master’s of law in taxation at USD School of Law. He also holds has an undergraduate degree and a master's degree in finance and management from San Diego State University. He was an attorney at Marquis & Aurbach before joining Fennemore Craig. He has served as a trustee for Crime Stoppers of Nevada and has been active in the Boys and Girls Club of Nevada and the Southern Nevada Police Toy Drive.

In addition to LeGrand and Martin, four associates working in the areas of corporate and real estate transactions, are now part of Fennemore Craig's commercial practice in Las Vegas as well. They are Mark Hawkins, who holds a law degree from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law; Jeffrey Steffen, who is a graduate of the John Marshall Law School in Chicago; Paul Wassgren, who earned his law degree at Oxford University; and Daniel Wilmot, whose law degree is from Willamette University College of Law.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 170 attorneys. Founded more than a century ago, Fennemore Craig has offices in Phoenix, Tucson and Nogales, Ariz., Las Vegas, Nev., and Denver, Colo. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.

###