Suzanne Diaz appointed to Arizona State Bar Committee on Women and Minorities in the Law

Tucson, Ariz., July 15, 2010 — Suzanne Diaz, an associate in the Tucson office of Fennemore Craig, has been appointed to a three-year term on the Arizona State Bar Committee on Women and Minorities in the Law.

Diaz practices in all areas of civil litigation with emphases in commercial litigation, employee benefits litigation, and business and personal injury torts.

The committee's mission is to educate the legal community and the public about issues relating to minorities and women in the practice of law; support minority and women practicing attorneys and students; develop strategies to broaden opportunities for minority and women attorneys; and promote an increase in the representation and retention of women and minorities practicing law.

The committee co-sponsors the annual State Bar Minority Convention and the Minority Writing Program, and sponsors the annual Tang Writing Competition for law students.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with nearly 200 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
