

Contact:

Kathy M. Hancock
Fennemore Craig, P.C.
602-916-5410
khancock@fclaw.com

Press Release

---

For Immediate Release

Fennemore Craig Attorney Elected to Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation's Board of Trustees

PHOENIX, May 22, 2006 — Fennemore Craig announced today that Director Sarah A. Strunk has been elected to the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation's Board of Trustees as the Arizona Mining Association representative.

Ms. Strunk is a member of Fennemore Craig's three-person Management Committee. Her area of practice focuses on securities, mergers and acquisitions, general contracts, corporate law and governance. While her practice has included everything from technology companies to sports venues, she has a particular depth of knowledge in the area of natural resource exploration, development, finance and marketing.

She has been an active member of the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Institute since 1992 and is Partner and Chair of the Board of Social Ventures Partners. Ms. Strunk is listed in Chambers USA, Leading Lawyers for Business. She received her J.D. in 1985 from the University of Kansas School of Law and her LLM in 1987 from New York University.

Organized in 1955 as a non-profit Colorado corporation, the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation is an educational organization dedicated to providing scholarly research of the laws and issues affecting domestic and international mineral and water resources. The Foundation is a cooperative organization governed by a Board of Trustees which currently consists of representatives from 30 law schools, 13 bar associations and 20 mining, oil and gas associations.

- more -

Fennemore Craig is a full service law firm with more than 160 attorneys. Founded more than a century ago, Fennemore Craig is one of the Southwest's oldest and largest firms. It has offices in Phoenix, Tucson and Nogales, Arizona and Lincoln, Nebraska.

# #