Fennemore Craig Attorney Named Chair of Legal Affairs Committee for Airports Council International – North America

RENO, NV – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Ann Morgan, a director in the firm’s Reno office, has been selected to serve as Chair of the Legal Affairs Committee for Airports Council International – North America (ACI-NA), effective January 2018. The Legal Affairs Committee provides airport attorneys a platform to share and discuss information about new developments in case law, statutes and regulations affecting airports as well as monitor pending airport litigation.

“Ann has achieved invaluable knowledge and experience in the field of aviation and unmanned aerial vehicles and her continued service to the ACI-NA Legal Affairs Committee is a testament of her commitment to the legal profession,” said Craig Etem, office managing partner of Fennemore Craig’s Reno office. “We congratulate Ann on this prestigious recognition and opportunity to promote the field of aviation.”

Morgan’s practice includes general business and business litigation. She serves in a general counsel capacity to the Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority as well as for other entities and private individuals. Morgan earned her J.D. from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law and her B.A. from the University of Nevada. She also serves on the Board of Governors for the Nevada State Bar Association.

Airports Council International – North America (ACI-NA) represents local, regional and state governing bodies that own and operate commercial airports in the United States and Canada. The mission of ACI-NA is to advocate policies and provide services that strengthen the ability of commercial airports to serve their passengers, customers and communities.
