Yvonne R. Hunter joins Fennemore Craig

Phoenix, Ariz., June 7, 2011—Yvonne R. Hunter has joined Fennemore Craig as of counsel in the Government Relations Practice. Hunter comes to Fennemore Craig with many years of government affairs experience. Prior to joining Fennemore Craig, she served as a senior public affairs representative for Pinnacle West Capital Corporation, monitoring issues and representing the company's interests in municipal, county, state and regulatory matters. She previously served as assistant attorney general in the Arizona Office of the Attorney General and as a senior attorney at Salt River Project. In addition, she was a deputy county attorney in the Maricopa County Attorney's Office.

“We are delighted to welcome Yvonne to Fennemore Craig as part of the firm's government relations team that works not only at the Arizona Legislature, the Executive branch and state agencies, but with local governments across the state,” said Tim Berg, Fennemore Craig managing partner.

Hunter holds a juris doctor degree from Arizona State University College of Law and a bachelor's degree in English Literature from University of Nevada-Las Vegas.

Hunter is active in the community as a member of the board of directors of the Phoenix Convention and Visitors Bureau, Kronos Longevity Research Institute, the Boyce Thompson Arboretum, and the Salvation Army. She chairs Friends of Transit and serves as a member of the Los Abogados Bar Association, Arizona Black Bar Association, Charter 100, the City of Phoenix Board of Adjustment, Arizona Judicial Council, and the City of Phoenix Transit Commission. She is the former president of the Maricopa County Bar Association and the Phoenix Public Library Foundation.

Fennemore Craig is a full service law firm for businesses with 180 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
