For Immediate Release

Barney Holtzman elected chair of State Bar of Arizona Employment and Labor Law Section

Tucson, Ariz., July 24, 2009— Barney Holtzman, a shareholder in the Tucson office of Fennemore Craig, has been elected to a one-year term as chair of the Employment and Labor Law Section of the State Bar of Arizona. As chair of the 594-member section, Holtzman will oversee the executive council and continuing legal education committee, as well as promote education and training opportunities.

Holtzman practices in the area of labor and employment law, financial services, professional liability and commercial litigation.

According to the State Bar of Arizona, the Employment and Labor Law Section was created for the purpose of enhancing the quality of practice in the area of labor and employment law, so as to substantively, procedurally, and ethically provide representation to clients, while providing a personally and professionally satisfying experience for practitioners in this area of law. Its focus covers the complex fields of employment law, discrimination, employee relations and traditional labor law. The Section provides regular monthly education programs, semi-annual seminars and outreach programs. The Section also produced (and updates) the Arizona Employment Law Handbook.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with nearly 200 attorneys and offices in Tucson, Phoenix, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
