

3003 North Central Avenue, Suite 2600
Phoenix, Arizona 85012-2913
www.fennemorecraig.com

FENNEMORE CRAIG
A HISTORY TO LEVERAGE Press Release

---

Contact: Sheenae Hebert
602-916-5290

FENNEMORE CRAIG ATTORNEYS PART OF
STATE BAR CONVENTION PROGRAM

PHOENIX, AZ (March 14, 2003) Fennemore Craig announced today that six of its attorneys, Anne Kleindienst, Sarah Strunk, Janet Weinstein Lord, John Pearce, James D. Burgess, and Lee Stein, all shareholders, are participating in the upcoming State Bar Convention, which is set for June 11-14, 2003, at The Phoenician in Scottsdale.

- Anne Kleindienst is the Convention Program Co-Chair for the Business Law Section of the Arizona State Bar, as well as a member of the Section's Executive Council. She is a shareholder of Fennemore Craig. In addition to representation of businesses in general corporate matters, Ms. Kleindienst practices in the areas of corporate matters specific to health care and bioscience, as well as corporate and municipal finance, and franchising.
- Sarah Strunk is part of a 3-hour session focused on legal and business issues involved in buying and selling the closely held business. Ms. Strunk practices in the areas of securities, mergers and acquisitions, and general contracts, corporate law and governance. She is a shareholder of Fennemore Craig and chairs the firm's business and finance practice.
- Jan Weinstein Lord is the Convention Program Co-Chair for the Securities Law Section of the Arizona State Bar. She is also a member of the Section's Executive Council. Ms. Weinstein Lord will be moderating and speaking at the Securities Law Section's litigation and regulation seminar. Ms. Weinstein Lord practices in the area of commercial litigation primarily, in securities and complex litigation. Ms. Weinstein Lord is a shareholder of Fennemore Craig and also serves as mediator and arbitrator of securities industry related disputes before the National Association of Securities Dealers.

- John Pearce is the Convention program Co-Chair for the Environmental and Natural Resources Section. Mr. Pearce also chairs that section of the State Bar. He is an environmental attorney who has practiced since 1988 in the areas of environmental and natural resources regulatory compliance, permitting, due diligence, lobbying and litigation, including matters pertaining to underground storage tanks, CERCLA, RCRA, and other state and federal laws pertaining to water and air quality. Mr. Pearce is a shareholder of Fennemore Craig.

- James D. Burgess will also be speaking at the Convention on State Law Securities Litigation Developments at the Securities Law Section's litigation and regulation seminar. Mr. Burgess practices primarily complex civil litigation, criminal law, and corporate compliance planning. Mr. Burgess is a shareholder of Fennemore Craig.

- Lee Stein will moderate a panel discussion on white-collar criminal enforcement in Arizona. The panel will address federal and state criminal law enforcement issues, overview and impact of Sarbanes-Oxley, practical considerations when representing a corporate client that is the subject of a criminal investigation, and ethical issues. Mr. Stein practices in the areas of white-collar criminal defense, governmental investigations, compliance planning and environmental law. He is a shareholder of Fennemore Craig.

Fennemore Craig is one of the largest law firms in the Southwest. Founded over a century ago, the firm has more than 150 attorneys in Phoenix, Tucson and Nogales, Arizona, and Lincoln, Nebraska.

###