Craig Dunlap joins Fennemore Craig

Las Vegas, NV, Jan. 9, 2009 — Attorney Craig Dunlap has joined Fennemore Craig's Las Vegas office as of counsel in the areas of bankruptcy, litigation and real property.

Dunlap has a wide range of legal experience including commercial litigation, property and contract disputes, entity formation, and creditor representation. He also has represented debtors, creditors, and unsecured creditors committees in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and adversary proceedings.

He has practiced in Las Vegas since 2001, primarily in the areas of bankruptcy and litigation. Prior to joining Fennemore Craig, Dunlap served as general counsel to a privately held real estate company. He previously practiced with Kolesar & Leatham, as well as with Shreck Brignone. He also practiced in the areas of litigation and real property in St. George and Salt Lake City, Utah and served as a law clerk to Judge Judith Boulden, United States Bankruptcy Court, in Salt Lake City.

Dunlap received a juris doctorate from University of Utah S.J. Quinney School of Law in 1993 and a bachelor of science degree from the University of Utah in 1990. He is a member of the state bar associations of Utah and Nevada and is admitted to practice in the state and federal courts of both states.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 200 attorneys and offices in

Las Vegas, Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, and Denver. For more information, visit
