Gerald Shelley joins Fennemore Craig's Bankruptcy and Creditor's Rights Practice

Phoenix, Ariz., November 6, 2009 — Gerald L. Shelley, a certified specialist in business bankruptcy law, has joined Fennemore Craig as a shareholder and member of the Bankruptcy, Creditor's Rights and Financial Restructuring Practice Group.

Shelley, who is based in the firm's Phoenix office, provides bankruptcy counsel to secured creditors, large unsecured creditors and other major constituents in Chapter 11 bankruptcy cases and is experienced in state court receivership actions. In addition, he litigates creditor's rights cases and handles non-bankruptcy workouts.

His experience includes the prosecution and defense of preference proceedings in both local and national cases; representation of state, county and municipal interests in Chapter 11 and Chapter 9 cases; insolvency and cross-border representation of national lenders and corporations with interests in Mexico, Italy, Costa Rica, the Netherlands, Ecuador, Singapore and Canada.

Shelley, a Martindale Hubble AV rated lawyer, comes to Fennemore Craig after practicing law for 18 years at Quarles & Brady.

He clerked for two years for the Honorable Robert G. Mooreman, Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge,

District of Arizona, after graduating from Arizona State University's law school, now the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law. He is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute, Risk Management Association, Turnaround Management Association, East Valley Partnership, Insol International, and J. Reuben Clark Law Society.

Fennemore Craig is a full-service business law firm with offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
