Fennemore Craig Attorney Neil Hiller honored by Jewish Federation of Greater Phoenix

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 2, 2009 — Neil Hiller, an estate planning attorney with Fennemore Craig in Phoenix, has been recognized with the Jewish Federation of Greater Phoenix's most prestigious award, the Medal of Honor.

The award recognizes Hiller's long term commitment to the local Jewish community. For more than two decades Hiller has served the Jewish community and the Jewish Federation in many significant ways, including serving as chairman of the Jewish Community Foundation from 2005 to 2007.

In 1998 he was elected to serve as president of the Jewish Federation of Greater Phoenix. Previously he served on the Federation's board of directors as vice president and treasurer. In addition he served as chairman of the Federation's Annual Campaign in 1996, major gifts chair in 1995 and as a member of the Strategic Planning Task Force and Allocation Committee. In 1994 he led the Federation's Community Mission to Israel.

Hiller was presented with the award at the Jewish Federation of Greater Phoenix's 67th Annual meeting held in January in Scottsdale.

Fennemore Craig is a full service law firm with more than 200 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
