Fennemore Craig Attorney Leonardo Loo Appointed to Governor's Asian-American Advisory Council

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 19, 2008 — Leonardo Loo, a shareholder at Fennemore Craig in Phoenix, has been appointed to the Governor's Asian-American Advisory County by Arizona Gov. Janet Napolitano.

The council meets quarterly to identify and discuss issues relevant to the state's Asian-American community and advise the governor. The council also helps the governor share information about government initiatives with constituents.

"The state of Arizona and I are fortunate that you have agreed to be appointed to the Governor's Asian-American Advisory Council. One of the satisfactions of holding office is the opportunity to recognize outstanding citizens by naming them to positions of leadership within our state government," Napolitano wrote to Loo in a letter confirming his appointment.

Fennemore Craig is a full service law firm with nearly 200 attorneys and offices in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
