Fennemore Craig Expands Business and Finance Practice and Estate Planning Practice

Phoenix, Ariz., July 18, 2007 —Business and Finance attorneys Joseph Parker and Leonardo Loo have joined Fennemore Craig as shareholders in the Business and Finance Practice Group. David Haga, a leading estate planning attorney, has joined the firm's Estate Planning Practice as well.

Parker is experienced in corporate and tax law, accounting and finance. He represents clients in business transactions, mergers, asset sales, stock sales and joint ventures, as well as federal tax planning matters and IRS controversy matters. Prior to joining Fennemore Craig, Parker was with Gallagher & Kennedy in Phoenix.

He earned his juris doctorate from Arizona State University. He also holds a bachelor's degree in accountancy from ASU.

Loo represents clients in business transactions, mergers and acquisitions, private offerings, financings and general corporate and securities law matters. He formerly was with Gallagher & Kennedy in Phoenix before joining Fennemore Craig.

Loo is a graduate of the University of Chicago Law School. He earned a bachelor's degree in economics and international relations from Stanford University.

David Haga has joined Fennemore Craig as of counsel in the Estate Planning Practice Group. Haga practices in the areas of federal tax, trusts and estates, wills, corporate and business law. Prior to joining Fennemore Craig, Haga was with Gallagher & Kennedy.

Haga has an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbe, the highest peer review rating. He holds a law degree with an emphasis in taxation from New York University.

Fennemore Craig is a full service business law firm with more than 180 attorneys. Founded over a century ago, Fennemore Craig has five offices, which are located in Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, Las Vegas, and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
