Fennemore Craig Expands Litigation Practice with Four Attorneys

Las Vegas, Nev., Oct. 8, 2008 — Veteran litigation attorneys Craig Newman and David Dachelet have joined the Las Vegas office of Fennemore Craig as shareholders. In addition, Anthony Ager and Anthony Stirling have joined the Las Vegas office as associates in the litigation practice.

The addition of Newman, Dachelet, Ager and Stirling brings the number of attorneys in Fennemore Craig's Las Vegas office to 18.

Newman focuses his practice on business litigation, commercial litigation, construction litigation, real estate litigation, landlord tenant law and collections. He is a Martindale Hubbell AV-rated attorney. He earned his law degree from the University of Minnesota and a bachelor's degree from Macalester College. He is admitted to practice in Nevada, in the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada, in the Ninth Circuit and in the U.S. Supreme Court. He is a member of the Clark County Bar Association, the State Bar of Nevada and the American Inns of Court.

Dachelet practices in the areas of business litigation, commercial litigation, construction litigation, landlord tenant law, and appellate law. He earned his law degree from the University of San Diego Law School and his bachelor's degree from the University of Utah. He is admitted to practice in Nevada, the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada, in the Ninth Circuit and in the U.S. Supreme Court. He is a member of the Clark County Bar Association and the State Bar of Nevada. He was named a 2008 Mountain West Super Lawyers "Rising Star."

Prior to joining Fennemore Craig, Newman and Dachelet were partners, and Ager and Stirling were associates, at Newman Morris & Dachelet, Ltd. in Las Vegas.

Fennemore Craig is a full service law firm with more than 200 attorneys and offices in Las Vegas, Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales and Denver. For more information, visit www.fennemorecraig.com.
