Fennemore Craig Attorney Named Vice Chairman of Legal Affairs Steering Committee for Airports Council International – North America

RENO, NV – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Ann Morgan, a director in the firm’s Reno office, has been selected to serve as Vice Chairman of the Legal Affairs Steering Committee for Airports Council International – North America (ACI-NA). The Legal Affairs Steering Committee provides airport attorneys a platform to share and discuss information about new developments in case law, statutes and regulations affecting airports as well as monitor pending airport litigation.

“Ann’s appointment as vice chair of the ACI-NA Legal Affairs Committee affirms her status as a national expert on the law pertaining to the airport industry,” said Steve Good, managing partner of Fennemore Craig. “We congratulate Ann on this honor, and we are proud that she is a member of our team.”

Morgan serves the Reno-Tahoe Airport Authority and other private individuals and physicians groups in a general counsel capacity, with an emphasis on employment law. Her work for these clients frequently extends to estate and trust litigation. Morgan earned her J.D. from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law and her B.A. from the University of Nevada. She also serves on the Board of Governors for the Nevada State Bar Association.

The Airports Council International – North America (ACI-NA) represents local, regional and state governing bodies that own and operate commercial airports in the United States and Canada. The mission of ACI-NA is to advocate policies and provide services that strengthen the ability of commercial airports to serve their passengers, customers and communities.
