Fennemore Craig Attorney Elected to Florence Immigrant and Refugee Rights Project's Board

PHOENIX, AZ - Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Emily Ward, an attorney in the firm's Phoenix office, has been elected to the Board of Directors for the Florence Immigrant and Refugee Rights Project.

"Service to the communities in which we live and work is an important part of our firm's culture," said Steve Good, chair of Fennemore Craig's management committee. "We are confident that Emily will be a positive contributor to the Florence Immigrant and Refugee Rights Project board, and we congratulate her on the appointment."

Ward focuses her practice in business litigation and business torts. She helps facilitate adoptions with the Volunteer Program and also serves on the board for the Arizona Industries for the Blind. Ward earned her J.D. and B.A. from the University of Arizona. She was recognized as a Southwest Super Lawyers Rising Stars® in 2017.

The Florence Project provides free legal and social services to detained adults and unaccompanied children facing immigration removal proceedings in Arizona.
