Fennemore Craig Mediator Appointed to the Washoe County Law Library Board of Trustees

RENO, NV – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Cortney Young, a mediator and paralegal in the firm’s Reno office, has been appointed to the Washoe County Law Library Board of Trustees.

“Members of the Fennemore Craig team have a long tradition of giving back to their community,” said Craig Etem, managing partner of Fennemore Craig’s Reno office. “We are proud to see Cortney continuing that tradition.” Craig went on to say, “Cortney is a dynamic and driven professional and we are sure she will be a valuable contributor to the Washoe County Law Library.”

Young’s mediation practice is focused on the resolution of disputes, including but not limited to, asset valuation, securities, probate and trust disputes, breach of contract, homeowner association disputes, foreclosure and super-priority mediation, boundary disputes, neighborhood disputes, landlord-tenant, and complex civil litigation. In addition to Cortney’s mediation practice, she was recently designated as an approved FINRA arbitrator, authorized to hear disputes between securities brokers and their customers.

The Washoe County Law Library allows access to justice by (1) providing legal information, education, resources, tools, and materials, in print and digital formats, to those engaged with the justice system, and (2) partnering with the courts, bar associations, legal clinics, civic organizations, and government entities to help ensure the legal needs of the community are addressed.
