Doug Thornley Appointed City of Reno Charter Committee Member

RENO, NV – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced Doug Thornley, an attorney in the firm’s Reno office, has been appointed as a member of the Reno Charter Committee.

“Members of the Fennemore Craig team have a long tradition of giving back to their community,” said Craig Etem, managing partner of Fennemore Craig’s Reno office. “Doug is an energetic and driven professional and we are sure he will be a valuable contributor to the Charter Committee.”

Thornley practices in the areas of land use, zoning, government affairs, and litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Doug was Senior Assistant City Attorney for the City of Sparks. He earned his J.D. from Stetson University College of Law and his B.A. from the University of Richmond.

The Reno Charter Committee was established to review the Reno City Charter in its entirety to identify changes that would provide for a more modern, effective and efficient City government. The Committee consists of members appointed by each Council Member and the Mayor, as well as members appointed by the Legislative delegation representing the residents of the City of Reno.
