Fennemore Craig Elects New Member to Management Committee

PHOENIX, AZ – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced the election of Susan Wissink, a partner in the firm’s Phoenix office, as the newest member of the firm’s five-person management committee. Wissink practices in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, healthcare, lending and general corporate matters. She also chairs Fennemore Craig’s Foundation and previously served as practice group chair of the firm’s business and finance practice.

“Susan is an excellent attorney and a respected leader,” said Steve Good, chair of Fennemore Craig’s management committee. “We look forward to working with Susan on leading the firm’s continuing efforts to provide outstanding service to our clients.”

Wissink represents both buyers and sellers in numerous complex transactions, including asset and stock-based acquisitions and sales, mergers and other business reorganizations. She assists her clients in forming new companies, private placements, private equity transactions, real estate lending transactions, general corporate matters and commercial health care matters. Wissink serves as President of the Board of Trustees for Childsplay. She earned her J.D. from Arizona State University and her B.A. from Northwestern University.
