Fennemore Craig Director, Samuel Lionel, Receives the Legacy of Advocacy Award

LAS VEGAS, NV – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West business law firm, announced Samuel Lionel, Director in the firm’s Las Vegas office, received the Legacy of Advocacy Award at the William S. Boyd School of Law’s Barrister’s Ball.

“Sam is a legendary litigator and has served as a mentor to lawyers, law professors, and law students for more than six decades. He has been an instrumental leader of the Nevada bar and a supporter of the UNLV William S. Boyd School of Law,” said Mark Hawkins, managing partner of Fennemore Craig’s Las Vegas office. “This is an outstanding recognition for a very deserving attorney.”

Mr. Lionel is one of the most respected and well-known trial attorneys in Nevada. His depth of experience and long record of success at trial continues to serve the Firm’s prestigious clients. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and is listed in Best Lawyers in America for business litigation and for corporate law.

Each year, the Barrister’s Ball, hosted by the Student Bar Association of the William S. Boyd School of Law, celebrates the end of the academic year, and awards esteemed members of community. The Legacy of Advocacy Award honors a member of the Nevada legal community whose contributions and service to Nevadans have significantly impacted access to legal services and administration of justice. This year, the Barrister’s Ball was held at MEET Las Vegas.
