Fennemore Craig Expands Legal Services Offerings With Immigration Practice

Margo Chernysheva joins as a director and brings deep experience to complement the firm's established transactional, corporate and regulatory practice offerings

LAS VEGAS, NV - Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, has announced a new Immigration Practice led by long time immigration attorney Margo Chernysheva. Her firm, MC Law Group, will formally join Fennemore Craig on November 1, 2018.

“Over our 133 years, we have grown Fennemore Craig to encompass the kinds of legal services practices that are relevant and valuable to our clients. Immigration is a prime example, which is an important topic to many at this time, and especially relevant across the communities of the Mountain West,” noted James Goodnow, president and chair of Fennemore Craig’s Management Committee.

Chernysheva’s team will focus on providing legal services covering the full spectrum of immigration law:

- Business Immigration
- E1 E2 Investor Visas
- EB-5 Investor Visas
- Employment Immigration
- Family Law
- Fiancé Visas
- Mediation
- Arbitration

“Helping people and businesses navigate the complexities of immigration law is my passion. Joining the Fennemore Craig family creates opportunities which apply that passion to serve clients across the globe,” said Chernysheva. “Especially for business clients, being a part of a firm with such breadth of legal services, means we can seamlessly support their unique needs related to immigration, labor and employment and other litigation and transaction legal issues.”

The addition of Chernysheva - who will join the firm as a director - and her team expands Fennemore Craig’s Las Vegas, Nevada presence and adds to the well-established Labor and Employment group, represented across the whole of Fennemore Craig’s footprint in Arizona, Colorado and Nevada.

“Fennemore Craig’s Las Vegas team is strengthened with Margo and her team joining us,” said Las Vegas Office Managing Partner, Mark Hawkins. “Our team is excited to add her expertise, and we’re confident that the immigration practice will add value for our clients in Las Vegas and beyond to address the complex landscape businesses and people are working through.”
