Andrea L. Marconi, Esq. Rejoins Fennemore Craig's Business Litigation Practice

PHOENIX, AZ – Fennemore Craig, a leading law firm in the Mountain West, announced that Andrea Marconi rejoined the firm as a director. She returns to the Business Litigation Practice and will be based in the Phoenix office.

“Andrea is a seasoned trial attorney who has a proven track record of working with clients on complex issues in a constantly evolving business environment, and we are thrilled to welcome her back to the firm,” said James Goodnow, Fennemore Craig’s president and managing partner. “She brings the legal prowess, experience and dedication that our clients expect from working with us and that helps them thrive today and in the future.”

Andrea is the third director this year to come home to practice at Fennemore Craig. Louis Lopez and Randy Jefferies returned to the NLJ 250 firm earlier in the year.

“Re-joining the team at Fennemore Craig feels great. As part of the firm, I’m able to provide my clients with a broad platform of legal services supported by the breadth and depth this team offers,” said Marconi. “Solving problems and creating opportunities for clients so they can thrive is my passion, and Fennemore Craig’s attorneys and leadership team embrace this same vision for client service.”

Marconi is an experienced attorney with a focus on business and commercial litigation. She has a deep background in working with clients in the financial services, franchise, and health care industries and routinely advises them on regulatory compliance issues, risk management, contract issues, defense of bad faith claims, insurance coverage and indemnity matters, restrictive covenants, trade secret litigation and intellectual property rights. Additionally, she has a deep background in trial practice and has a strong involvement in the legal, business, and non-profit communities in Phoenix.

Marconi received her J.D. from Arizona State University College of Law and her B.A. from University of Arizona.
