Fennemore Craig Attorney Ann Morgan Recognized By Best Lawyers[®] As One Of Its Most Accomplished Female Attorneys

Morgan Has Been Recognized By Best Lawyers[®] Since 2006

RENO, NV – Fennemore Craig, a leading Mountain West law firm, announced that Ann Morgan has been recognized by Best Lawyers[®] as one of its most accomplished female attorneys in corporate-facing practice areas in its Spring 2019 “Women in the Law” issue. Morgan was acknowledged for exceptional skills in Labor and Employment (L&E) litigation.

“I have always looked at my career in the law as a platform to help others thrive,” remarked Morgan. “Being acknowledged by Best Lawyers[®] for this number of years keeps me inspired to help create opportunities for others through my work,” added Morgan.

For the 2019 “Women in the Law” Business Edition, Best Lawyers[®] chose to feature 39 of its most accomplished female attorneys in corporate-facing practice areas. Each of these women have won the “Lawyer of the Year” award three or more times.

“Ann is an advocate in every sense of the word,” notes James Goodnow, Fennemore Craig’s president and managing partner. “She’s a champion for fresh ideas in the firm, always looking for ways to help advance her clients and her peers. We love to see our team achieve, especially in service to others with outstanding work.”
